Coaches Code of Conduct

I hereby pledge to live up to the City of Charleston Recreation Department Code of Conduct as a coach.

Coaches are responsible to ensure that the health, well-being, safety and development of athletes take precedence over the win/loss record.

Coaches are expected to maintain a professional demeanor in their relationships with athletes, officials, coaches, administrators, opposing parents and treat all with respect and dignity.

Coaches must acknowledge that they are role models and behave in a respectful way. Exemplifying honesty, integrity, respect and fair play to all. Any form of fighting, verbal or physical, any threats of violence, any actions not representing that of a role model will not be tolerated.

Coaches should recognize that physical contact is at times necessary with players but coaches must ensure that no action on their part can be misconstrued. Always follow the rule of 3. Never be alone with a child at practice, do not give children rides home and do not go behind closed doors with a child alone.

Coaches should always instill integrity to the game and to the players. Do not teach children to break rules or behave unsportsmanlike. Let's prepare our players on how to succeed and fail maturely.

Coaches will ensure the knowledgeable in the rules of each sport that you coach, and that you will teach these rules to your players.

Coaches will not tolerate or participate in any kind of abuse, verbal, physical or emotional. Please report any infractions, so that we can protect the children. I will remember that I am a youth coach, and that the game is for children and not adults.
