West Ashley Farmers Market Opens Wednesday

Charleston, S.C.— Opening day of the new West Ashley Farmers Market is tomorrow, Wednesday, September 21 from 3:30 – 7:30 p.m. in Ackerman Park at 55 Sycamore Avenue.

Mayor John Tecklenburg will speak at 6 p.m. to welcome all in attendance and kick off the new farmers market. Entertainment will be provided by a local band, The Lowhills. The opening of the Farmers Market was originally scheduled to take place on September 14, but was rescheduled due to severe weather.

The Farmers Market will celebrate Environment & Sustainability Day. There will be informational displays by Charleston County Recycling, the South Carolina Aquarium, the City of Charleston's Environmental Education division, Charleston Bicycle Company and Charleston Waterkeeper.
