City Statement on Flyer Referencing the KKK

Charleston, S.C.—Today City of Charleston Spokesperson Jack O’Toole released the following statement with regard to a flyer that has been circulating on the Internet:

“The College of Charleston and the Charleston Police Department, along with their state and federal partners, are working together in reference to a flyer announcing a Klan rally at the College on September 9, 2017. To date, we have heard from no one with regard to our city’s process for permitting and planning such events, and we are continuing to monitor the situation.” –City of Charleston Spokesperson Jack O’Toole
